TEOSYAL® PURESENSE REDENSITY [I]: SKIN REDENSIFIER & GLOW ENHANCER

Age, stress, hormonal imbalance (post-birth, menopause...) as well as sun, tobacco and an unhealthy lifestyle are all factors involved in skin aging. With time, lines develop, complexion turns dull, the skin texture becomes uneven and wrinkles appear. All these changes create dark areas on the face and the skin gradually loses its glow and becomes dry, thin and fragile.

Young skin

Aged skin

Loss of hyaluronic acid and excessive oxidative stress are the main reasons of skin aging:

Hyaluronic acid is an essential skin component. It acts like a sponge that retains water and keeps the skin moisturized, plumped and healthy.

As far as oxidative stress is concerned, the balance between detoxifying molecules (antioxidants) and toxic elements (oxidants) can be disturbed by many external factors. The excess of oxidants attacks the skin decreasing its elasticity and tonicity.

My skin is not just quite the way it used to be... It lost its natural glow and hydration. And I hate being told I look dull all the time.

I want to feel pretty again and regain confidence in myself!

Helen, 32

Thanks to TEOXANE Laboratories and TEOSYAL® PureSense Redensity [I], it is now possible to restore this balance by adequately nourishing the skin from within.

TEOSYAL® PureSense Redensity [I] is a unique hyaluronic acid-based skin enhancer which prevents premature skin aging, restores skin density and maintains skin glow.
